Dining at the Chef's Table

THE PARTY CS Interiors and Jenn-Air hosted Chef's Table, an exclusive food and wine event for ultimate foodies at the Reid Murdoch Penthouse to celebrate the July restaurant issue of CS magazine and DIFFA's—the Design Industries Foundation Fighting AIDS—Dining by Design gala.

THE PLAYERS Heffernan Morgan Designs set the fête, where guests sampled bites from chefs Jean Joho of Everest, Chris Macchia of Coco Pazzo, Jonathan Beatty of Davanti Enoteca, Jackie Shen of Chicago Cut, Martial Noguier of Bistronomic, Cory Morris of Mercat a la Planxa and many more. Over the sounds of live music by Rendezvous and Toast & Jam, the crowd enjoyed Moët Ice Imperial bubbly, cocktails by Adam Seger of Hum Spirits and wine pairings by Noble Grape. Desserts included sweet corn custard with blackberry coulis by Megan Neubeck of Terzo Piano, assorted chocolates by Jacques Torres and handmade ice cream from Table Fifty-Two pastry chef Celeste Campise; the restaurant's legendary hummingbird cake was served as mini cupcakes.

THE BOTTOM LINE The evening benefited DIFFA/Chicago, a nonprofit that provides funds and services to Chicago-area residents living with HIV/AIDS.
