

How Increments of Giving can affect your Organization.

FCAN - Families & Children AIDS Network - Trisha Curran, Grants & Development Coordinator

GIVING FOR RED RIBBON TRAILS:

- $25 provides for the travel expenses to/from camp for one camper.
- $50 supplies a family with a weekend “goody bag” of needed supplies.
- $100 provides food for a camper during one of our weekend retreats.
- $250 lodges one family for the duration of a retreat.
- $1000 supports one therapeutic group session for all camp participants.

Chicago House - The Reverend Stan J. Sloan Chief, Executive Officer

- $500 provides a computer for a New HIV Prevention Counselor
- $250 One-week salary for Job Internship
- $200 One Month’s Rent at the Independent Living Program
- $150 Bus Rental for Summer Camp Outing
- $100 Children’s Books for the Library at the Living Program
- $75 Toys for the new playroom at the Family Support Program
- $50 One day stipend for iFOUR intern
- $50 Recreation equipment for Kid’s summer Camp
- $50 Electric Bill at the Family Support Program
- $30 Nutritional Snacks for After School Program
- $25 Activity Supplies for the Girl Power Group
- $25 Grocery Store Gift Card for HIV Client
- $25 HIV Rapid Test
- $20 Bus Passes for a week for Job Training Workshop
- $20 Supplies for Tutoring Program
- $10 Transportation from Chicago House to the Doctor/Pharmacy

InterFaith House - Tim Drake, Grant Writer

- $25 HIV Rapid Test
- $20 Bus Passes for a week for Job Training Workshop
- $20 Supplies for Tutoring Program
- $10 Transportation from Chicago House to the Doctor/Pharmacy
- A gift of $2,000 helps cover the cost of providing housing, health care and support services for one resident at Interfaith House for one month.
- A gift of $1,000 helps cover the cost of feeding Interfaith House’s 64 residents for one week;
- A gift of $500 ensures transportation services to off-site medical and psychological appointments for Interfaith House residents for one week;
- A gift of $250 helps cover the cost of hygiene products like soap, shaving equipment and toothpaste for one month;
- And gifts in kind of pillows and blankets, men and women’s clothing, household items and services such as haircuts are always in need.

Vital Bridges - Deborah R. Hinde President & CEO

Food and nutrition services:

- $20 provides the food for 14 nutritious meals
- $50 provides the food for 35 nutritious meals or one session with a Registered Dietitian
- $100 provides food for three weeks
- $1,000 provides food for seven months.

Howard Brown Health Center -Donald Rolfe, Director of Communications & Business Development

- A gift of $25 helps Howard Brown provide free HIV/STD testing and counseling to someone in need.
- A gift of $50 helps provide mental health counseling to someone living with HIV.
- A gift of $100 helps Howard Brown provide an uninsured client with primary HIV medical care and laboratory testing.
- A gift of $1,000 helps Howard Brown provide a newly diagnosed, HIV-positive youth with immediate medical care, counseling, and social support at its Broadway Youth Center.

The Children's Place Association – Jennifer Sampson

- $50.00 provides a week of nutritional supplements for an HIV/AIDS-affected child in our Early Learning Center.
- $100.00 buys one day's worth of formula for ten infants and toddlers in our 24-care facility.
- $250.00 buys one year of tooth brushes and toothpaste for the children in our Early Learning Center.
- $500.00 provides a week of meals for up to 60 students in our Early Learning Center. For many of our children the only meals they get each day are those they receive while they are in this specialized daycare.

Center on Halsted - Davon Woodard

- $50- Provides one HIV Testing and Risk Reduction Session
- $500- Provides 10 mental health sessions for persons living with HIV
- $750- Provides one community outreach and education event
- $1000-Provides one support group for persons newly diagnosed with HIV